

In the configuration stage of a socialmap are defined either markers that can accommodate or

Information can be of different types : text, long text, date, number, flag, image, link, videolink in

The socialmap is also characterized by its " social " features, that is the collaborative way with

The insertion of new points on the map may be subject to approval by the person who plays the

Each point on the map can also be commented by sending comments and reply with the

Regarding the inclusion of markers in addition to normal web form, upload a csv file or sending